From Mrs Haynes

Drouin West Primary School Chaplain

Dear Families,

Thanks to Drouin Bakers Delight for their generous donation of bread to support our Breaky Club program.

Breaky Club has been such a positive space as the mornings have cooled down. Warm toast can be very appealing on a cold day!

There are many students who come for a social breakfast and head off to start their day with their friends. If there are any parents/guardians who are interested in helping support breaky club, I would appreciate an extra set of hands. Half an hour on Tuesday or Friday mornings around drop off time would be really helpful.

Please get in touch with Emma or myself at Breaky Club to let me know if you're able to help out, you will need to hold a current WWC (Working with Children's Check) Thanks too, to the Arnup family for offering to pick up the bread from Bakers Delight. It has been a wonderful help.

Di Haynes, Chaplain.

Congratulations Super Bees!
